

1. What was the hardest part of the assignment for you?

Just remembering Python syntax. I don't normally code in Python.

2. What was the easiest part of the assignment for you?

The problems were pretty easy to solve.

3. What problem(s) helped further your understanding of the course material?

All of the review provided on the assignment were super helpful

4. Did you feel any problems were tedious and not helpful to your understanding of the material?

No

5. What other feedback do you have about this homework?

It was a really good starting assignment